Personalized Coaching

Empower your team with personalized coaching from one of our web conferencing experts. Let us help you make your next online event seamless, engaging and successful.

GoToWebinar OnPoint

Gain confidence when organizing your online events. Our Webinar Producer will give you helpful tips and tricks on how to create your webinar — from selecting an ideal date and time to the use of polling questions to interacting with your audience. You'll also learn how to conduct a dry run with your presenters, manage the pre-conference webinar, test presenter's audio, review recording settings and establish roles and responsibilities amongst the organizers and panelists. All attendees will receive a housekeeping script along with housekeeping slides and a day-of checklist to ensure you haven't missed anything. During this 90-minute session our Webinar Producer will take the time to learn about your needs, answer your questions and provide best practices to help make every GoToWebinar event a success.

GoToTraining OnPoint

This session will help you deliver impactful and interactive online training sessions with GoToTraining. We will give you helpful tips and tricks about creating your training session – from selecting an ideal date and time to setting up your course catalog and workspace for a smooth delivery. Also learn basic troubleshooting, advanced presentation techniques and attendee engagement. During this 90-minute session our Training Producer will take the time to learn about your needs, answer your questions and provide best practices to help make every GoToTraining session a success.

by CITRIX®